Let's Talk Starting in Business

Many new businesses fly no further than the drawing board. Barclays free Let's Talk Starting in Business seminars will give you the tools to help your business take off.

If you know what you want to do and really believe you can do it, this seminar can really help. The seminar is organised in conjunction with the National Federation of Enterprise Agencies and in partnership with the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants.

If you're considering setting up as a sole trader, a partnership or limited company, the help and encouragement you'll get can support you in areas such as:

- How to write a good business plan
- Sourcing finance
- Managing cash flow
- Taxation and VAT
- Marketing
- And lots more...

This seminar is an excellent opportunity to get free information, talk to other local new business starters and swap experience and contacts. To attend this seminar please contact:
